SECTION 1: LETTER TO STUDENTS

Dear Fellow Students,

When I decided to run for SRC President, friends asked: "Why? It's a thankless job." Others asked: "What makes you different?" Current leaders asked: "What's your angle?"

My answer is simple: I've read our Constitution. All 100 pages. And I'm terrified by how far we've strayed from it.

This isn't about ambition. It's about duty. Article 4(2) says "all students shall have the right and duty to defend this Constitution." I'm fulfilling that duty by offering to lead us back to constitutional governance.

This manifesto outlines my vision: constitutional governance that delivers real service. Not one or the other. Both.

Read it. Challenge it. Question me. Hold me accountable.

That's how constitutional democracy works.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Justice Lay Amanfu', is written over a horizontal line.

Justice Lay Amanfu

Candidate for SRC President,
Southshore University College

SECTION 2: THE CONSTITUTIONAL CRISIS WE FACE

The Facts

- 1 Our SRC Constitution (Article 88(6)) requires:
"Before entering upon the duties of his office, a person elected or duly appointed to an office under the SRC shall take and subscribe the oath of allegiance, oath of secrecy and the official oath"
Reality: Our current President never took the oath before governing. Neither did other Executive Officers.
Legal Effect: They're holding office illegally, without constitutional authority.
- 2 Our Constitution (Article 5(2)) mandates:
"The three (3) working bodies... shall be independent of each other and the arrangement shall in no way prescribe a line of authority."
Reality: All three councils meet together regularly for planning, under presidential leadership.
Legal Effect: Separation of powers destroyed. Checks and balances eliminated.
- 3 Our Constitution (Article 20(4)) requires:
The President to deliver three types of state of affairs addresses at specified times.
Reality: Not one address has been delivered.
Legal Effect: No transparency. No accountability. No constitutional compliance.

SECTION 3: MY COMMITMENT — OATH FIRST, GOVERNANCE SECOND

The Public Oath Ceremony

Within 72 hours of being declared elected, I will:

- ✓ Coordinate with the Judicial Council Chairperson to organize a public swearing-in ceremony
- ✓ Publish notice on all campus notice boards 48 hours in advance
- ✓ Invite the entire student body, University officials, and the Dean of Students
- ✓ Take the Presidential Oath, Oath of Allegiance, and Oath of Secrecy publicly
- ✓ Ensure all Executive Officers take their respective oaths at the same ceremony

I will not sign a single document, convene a single meeting, or make a single decision until I've taken the oath.

Why This Matters

The oath is not a mere ceremony but a constitutional moment when election results become legitimate authority. Without it, I'm just a student who won a popularity contest. With it, I am constitutionally bound to serve you.

The Oath I'll Take

"I [Justice Lay Amanfu] having been elected to the high office of the President of the Students Representative Council (SRC) do, hereby, in the name of the Almighty God swear that I will be faithful and true to the SRC, that I shall strive at all times to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the SRC..."

And if I break this oath, I'll submit myself to removal.

SECTION 4: RESTORING SEPARATION OF POWERS

The Constitutional Structure

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL	LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL	JUDICIAL COUNCIL
• 14–15 members • Formulates policies (Art. 18) • Implements programs • Reports to Legislature	• 20+ members • Approves budgets (Art. 37) • Vets appointments • Provides oversight • Can remove officers (Art. 92)	• 10+ members • Completely independent (Art. 52) • Enforces Constitution • Adjudicates disputes • Cannot be interfered with

How I Will Restore This

Week 1

- Issue executive directive: Executive Council meetings will include only Executive Council members
- Meet with Speaker to establish proper Legislative Council operations
- Meet with Judicial Council Chairperson to affirm commitment to judicial independence

Week 2

- Convene first proper Executive Council meeting (14–15 members only) to plan programs
- Present first budget proposal to Legislative Council for approval
- Publicly announce separation of powers policy

Week 3

- First state of affairs address to General Council (all three bodies, but only for this constitutional purpose, not planning)

Ongoing

- General Council meetings only twice per semester for state of affairs addresses
- Zero interference with Judicial Council
- All budgets submitted to Legislature
- Accept Legislative oversight without resistance

SECTION 5: TRANSPARENCY THROUGH STATE OF AFFAIRS ADDRESSES

The Constitution mandates THREE types of addresses:

1. To General Council (Article 20(4)(a))

- When: Beginning and end of each semester
- Content: Comprehensive state of SRC affairs
- Audience: All SRC officers from all three councils

2. To General Students' Body (Article 20(4)(b))

- When: Third week of beginning and end of semester
- Content: State of SRC affairs accessible to all students
- Follow-up: Outcomes published within 7 days (Article 22(1)(d))

3. To Legislative Council (Article 20(4)(c))

- When: Two weeks before handover
- Content: Final state of affairs
- Special: Student body has right to attend and observe

My Commitment:

I will deliver all six addresses (three types × two per academic year) without fail.

Sample Address Topics

- Financial status and expenditures
- Programs implemented and their outcomes
- Challenges faced and solutions attempted
- University relations and advocacy results
- External representation (PUSAG, NUGS, etc.)
- Plans for next semester
- Areas where we fell short

Additional Transparency Measures

- Open office hours for student concerns
- Published minutes of Executive Council meetings (redacting only sensitive personnel/financial negotiations)
- Quarterly financial reports
- Annual comprehensive report

You'll know exactly what your SRC is doing and why.

SECTION 7: CONCRETE INITIATIVES FOR STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

A. Inter-Faculty Competitions: Building Campus Unity

The Vision

Transform faculty rivalries into healthy competition through comprehensive inter-faculty championships across academics, sports, arts, and innovation.

What We'll Organize

Academic Competitions

- Sports competitions: Managed by Sports and Games Commission (Article 67)
- Arts competitions: Organized by Entertainment Commission (Article 63)
- Tech competitions: Led by Technology, Innovation and Development Commission (Article 78)
- Budget: Presented to Legislature for approval (Article 37(1)(b))
- Oversight: Legislature monitors implementation and receives progress reports

Why This Matters

- Breaks down faculty silos
- Creates sense of belonging and pride
- Provides platforms for student talent
- Builds lifelong friendships across faculties
- Makes campus life vibrant and engaging

B. Faculty Platforms: Vertical and Horizontal Integration

The Problem

Currently, Level 100 students barely know Level 400 students even in their own faculty. There is no systematic connection between levels, limiting mentorship, knowledge transfer, and community building.

The Solution: Faculty Connect Platforms

Each faculty will have an integrated platform connecting all students from Level 100 to Level 400, creating both:

Vertical Channels (Level 100 ↔ Level 200 ↔ Level 300 ↔ Level 400)

- Senior-junior mentorship programs
- Course guidance and academic support
- Career advice and internship connections
- Project collaboration opportunities

Horizontal Channels (Within Each Level)

- Peer support networks
- Study groups and academic collaboration
- Social connections and friendships
- Level-specific activities and events

Implementation Mechanisms

1. Digital Platforms: WhatsApp/Telegram groups structured by faculty and level; digital mentorship matching system
2. Physical Gatherings: Faculty-wide mixers, level-specific orientations, senior-junior sessions, faculty townhalls
3. Mentorship Programs: Pairing of Level 400 students with Level 100 students, academic guidance, career counseling, research mentorship
4. Knowledge Transfer: Past questions and materials sharing (ethically), study tips, lecturer insights, campus life guidance

Faculty Representatives Council

Create a Faculty Representatives Council with 2 representatives per faculty to coordinate these platforms and report to Legislative Council on effectiveness.

Constitutional Process:

- Coordination: Through Clubs and Societies Commission (Article 68) under General Secretary's leadership
- Collaboration: With faculty presidents who sit on Legislative Council (Article 36)

- Oversight: Academic Committee of Legislative Council (Article 41(3)(d))
- Budget: Approved by Legislature for platform technology and events

Expected Outcomes

- ✓ Level 100 students feel welcomed and supported
- ✓ Knowledge flows efficiently across levels
- ✓ Reduced academic struggles through peer support
- ✓ Stronger faculty identity and community
- ✓ Better social integration
- ✓ Mentorship relationships that last beyond graduation

C. Health Screening Initiatives

Building on Success

The existing breast cancer awareness month screening is excellent. I will continue and expand it.

Expanded Health Initiative

- Continue the existing screening programs and expand to include general health screening
- Expand to reach more female students
- Include educational seminars on early detection
- Partner with hospitals for comprehensive screening
- Provide follow-up support for students needing further examination

Constitutional Process:

- Primary Responsibility: Welfare Commission (Article 62)
- Collaboration: Gender (Women's) Commission for breast cancer initiatives (Article 75)
- Budget: Submitted through Welfare Commissioner to Legislative Council
- Reporting: Welfare Commissioner reports outcomes to Legislature Council

Your health is foundational to your academic success. Early detection saves lives. Mental health support reduces dropout rates. Healthy students perform better academically and enjoy campus life more fully.

D. SRC Week: Education + Entertainment = Excellence

- FAQ sessions with loan scheme administrators
- Step-by-step application workshops

II. Application Support Services

- Dedicated SRC office hours for loan application assistance
- Help with documentation and paperwork

- Follow-up support for pending applications

III. Partnership with Loan Administrators

- Bring loan scheme officials to campus each semester
- Organize application drives with officials present to assist
- Negotiate for faster processing of Southshore students' applications
- Create direct communication channel for urgent cases

Constitutional Process:

- Primary Responsibility: External Affairs Secretariat (Article 73(2)) — explicitly charged with student loan scheme
- Oversight: Legislative Council's Budget Committee monitors fund usage
- Reporting: External Affairs President reports to Executive and Legislative Councils (Article 74(1))

Education shouldn't be a privilege for the wealthy. Every admitted student deserves the chance to complete their education. Financial struggles shouldn't determine your future.

B. Lecture Hall Ventilation Project — "Cool Classrooms Initiative"

The Problem

Many of our lecture halls lack adequate ventilation. Students struggle to concentrate in hot, stuffy classrooms. Learning suffers when physical comfort is compromised.

The Solution: SRC-Led Fan Installation Project

Install ceiling fans in every lecture hall, ensuring every student has access to ventilated learning spaces.

The Fundraising Strategy

This will be a 100% VOLUNTARY fundraising campaign. No student will be compelled or pressured to contribute. All contributors' names will be published on an honor board (with their permission).

Additional Funding Sources

5. Corporate Sponsorship: Approach fan manufacturers for bulk discounts or donations; seek sponsorship from educational CSR programs; partner with companies for 'Adopt-a-Classroom' campaigns
6. Alumni Contributions: Reach out to past students through alumni networks; each alumni class can sponsor a lecture hall
7. SRC Budget Allocation: Seed funding from SRC budget (subject to Legislative approval)
8. Fundraising Events: Benefit concert during SRC Week, charity football match between faculties, Walkathon/Fun run for education

Target: GH¢50,000–80,000 (estimated, pending audit)

Implementation Timeline

- Month 1: Conduct lecture hall audit, form committee, calculate costs, launch fundraising campaign
- Month 2: Begin corporate sponsorship outreach; contact alumni networks
- Month 3–4: Procurement process (transparent bidding); coordination with University Estates
- Month 4–5: Installation begins (prioritize most crowded lecture halls first)
- Month 5: Project completion ceremony; honor board unveiling; final financial report published

Benefits

- ✓ Immediate: Improved learning conditions this academic year
- ✓ Sustainable: Fans last 5–10 years, benefiting future students
- ✓ Empowering: Students solving their own problems collectively
- ✓ Demonstrative: Shows what student solidarity can achieve

- ✓ Inclusive: Every lecture hall benefits, every student benefits

Constitutional Process:

- Committee develops detailed proposal with audit results and cost estimates
- Executive Council reviews and endorses
- Proposal submitted to Legislative Council for approval per Article 37(1)(b)
- Legislature debates and approves budget allocation and fundraising campaign
- Regular progress reports to Legislative Council
- Final report and audit submitted to Legislature upon completion

C. SRC Canteen Revitalization Project

The Problem

The SRC has a canteen meant to provide affordable, quality food to students. Currently, it's not functioning well. Students complain about food quality, pricing, limited options, and service delays. A valuable SRC asset is underperforming.

The Solution: Comprehensive Canteen Revitalization

Transform the SRC canteen into a thriving, student-friendly food service that provides affordable, quality, diverse meals in a clean, welcoming environment.

Approach: Expert-Led Assessment and Reform

Rather than making assumptions, we will establish a professional committee to diagnose problems and propose evidence-based solutions.

Committee Mandate

- Phase 1: Comprehensive Assessment (Within 4 weeks)
- Phase 2: Presentation and Approval — Committee presents comprehensive report to Executive Council, Legislative Council, and General Students' Body

Report to include: executive summary, detailed findings, recommendations with justification, implementation timeline, budget requirements, expected outcomes, risk analysis, and success metrics.

Approval Process

- ❖ President appoints Canteen Revitalization Committee
- ❖ Committee conducts assessment (4 weeks)
- ❖ Committee submits report to Executive Council for review
- ❖ Executive Council endorses recommendations
- ❖ Proposals submitted to Legislative Council
- ❖ Legislature debates, possibly amends, and approves implementation plan and funding
- ❖ Implementation begins
- ❖ Regular progress reports to Legislature per Article 62(2)(d)
- ❖ Independent financial audit by Audit Committee per Article 86

Expected Outcomes

- ✓ Improved food quality through better ingredients, preparation, and variety
- ✓ Affordable pricing through operational efficiency and possible subsidies
- ✓ Better hygiene through protocols and monitoring
- ✓ Faster service through operational improvements
- ✓ Student satisfaction measured through surveys and increased usage
- ✓ Financial sustainability making canteen viable long-term
- ✓ SRC asset optimization ensuring canteen serves its purpose

SECTION 11: WHY CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNANCE MATTERS

"Why should I care about constitutional stuff? Just deliver results!"

I hear you. But here's why the "how" matters as much as the "what":

1. Your Money

The SRC collects fees from every student. Without legislative oversight and independent audits, funds can be misused, expenditures go unquestioned, corruption becomes easy, and you never know where your money went.

Constitutional governance protects your money through:

- Legislative budget approval (Article 37(1)(b))
- Three signatories required (Article 85(2))
- Independent audits (Article 86)
- Published financial reports (Article 23(1)(e-f))

2. Your Rights

Without separation of powers, the President becomes a dictator, no one checks his authority, your rights can be violated without recourse, and the Judicial Council can't protect you if it's not independent.

Constitutional governance protects your rights through:

- Legislative oversight (Article 37(1)(e))
- Judicial independence (Article 52)
- Checks and balances (Article 5(2))
- Right to petition for enforcement (Article 3)

3. Your Voice

Without state of affairs addresses, you don't know what SRC is doing, you can't hold leaders accountable, decisions are made in darkness, and your voice doesn't matter.

Constitutional governance amplifies your voice through:

- Mandatory transparency (Article 20(4))
- Published outcomes (Article 22(1)(d))
- Right to observe Legislature (Article 48)
- Regular reporting requirements

4. Your Future

If today's leaders ignore oath requirements, tomorrow's leaders ignore financial rules, next year's leaders ignore election results, and eventually nothing matters — the Constitution becomes worthless.

Constitutional governance protects future generations through:

- Establishing precedent of compliance
- Creating culture of accountability
- Building institutions that outlast individuals
- Ensuring peaceful transfer of power

THE CONSTITUTION ISN'T ABOUT BEING LEGALISTIC. IT'S ABOUT PROTECTING YOU FROM LEADERS WHO WOULD ABUSE POWER.

SECTION 12: HOW YOU CAN HOLD ME ACCOUNTABLE

During the Campaign

- ✓ Read this manifesto critically — challenge me on specifics, ask how I'll actually implement these pledges, demand details, not just promises
- ✓ Attend campaign events — ask tough questions, demand constitutional commitments from all candidates, compare manifestos
- ✓ Study the Constitution — download it from the students WhatsApp page, read the simplified guide I will publish, understand your rights
- ✓ Verify my credentials — check my leadership experience, talk to people I have worked with, assess my character and commitment

If I'm Elected

- ✓ Attend the oath ceremony — I want you there as witnesses, hold me to every word of that oath, celebrate legitimate governance together
- ✓ Monitor my first 100 days — I'll publish a checklist, track my progress, call me out if I'm falling short
- ✓ Attend state of affairs addresses — come to all six addresses, ask questions, demand clarity
- ✓ Read published reports — financial statements each semester, annual comprehensive report
- ✓ Observe Legislative Council — Article 48(1) gives you the right to attend and observe; see checks and balances in action

Formal Accountability Mechanisms

If I violate the Constitution:

- Petition the Judicial Committee under Article 3
- Support Legislative vote of no confidence under Article 92
- Initiate impeachment proceedings under Article 91

If I misuse funds:

- Report to the Audit Committee
- Petition Legislature's Budget Committee
- Demand investigation

If I abuse power:

- File petition with Judicial Committee

- Rally Legislative oversight
 - Mobilize student body
- ✓ Engage with me directly — attend my open office hours, email concerns, approach me on campus; I work for you, therefore act like it

I WANT YOU TO HOLD ME ACCOUNTABLE. I'm not asking for blind trust. I'm asking for constitutional accountability. If I govern well, constitutionally, reward me with your confidence. If I fail, remove me according to the Constitution. That's how democracy works.
